Fellowship & Support of Our Claretian Priests and Brothers

Come and enjoy the fellowship of alums, priests, brothers, and friends of the Claretian community at Dominguez Seminary. On Saturday, August 25th, we gather again for the 37th year in a row to celebrate our lives and friendships intertwined in mutual relationships. This year we are honoring the classes of 66 - 68' and Fr. Louie, C.M.F. In order to celebrate the occasion we are once again meeting at famous Dominguez Seminary in Compton.

Please contact your friends and classmates about coming.

ALUMNI NEWS

FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICHARD:

Introduction for Herb Kaighan’s March 10th conference at Dominguez

I am the only survivor of a class of 24 high school postulants who made it all the way to ordination. Let me address especially how I came to know Herb in Washington, D.C. at Catholic University. I was a couple years his senior, but we shared the same theological training and community living that was common to Religious seminary life in the early 60’s.

We had Morning Prayer & Mass, classes at the U., intermural sports. We were almost always the team to beat, always ending up in first or second place. It was a time of change however, with Vatican II, Haight Ashbury in the West, and Woodstock in the East. The Vietnam War, civil rights demonstrations, and the assassination of the Kennedys and M.L. King. We supported each other in our struggles to grow, learn and understand. In our free time, we took up folk music, and motorcycles.

Those of you alumni who feel some guilt about leaving the seminary—a tinge of regret for not having attained some boyhood dreams. You were finding yourself then, and that is exactly what it was all supposed to be about. That same desire to do what you were meant to do that brought you to the seminary is still with you today as you continue to do God’s will in your layman’s life.

There is such a thing as the priesthood of the common man, and Herb is a perfect example. You are now making your own contribution to church, society, and the large world.
